

7th Annual National SweatFree Summit

Olympia, WA ~ November 5-7, 2010

- Networking • Training • Strategizing
- Organizing • Action • Inspirational Speakers

Learn about and get active in an innovative, strategic campaign to bring justice to sweatshop workers. Connect with grassroots organizers and international workers. Help design national campaign priorities for 2011, and come away with tools to bring the movement to your community.

Free public panels with international speakers
(pre-registration not required)

FREE TRADE, FORCED MIGRATION & SWEATSHOPS:

Cross-border organizing in the post-election season

Where: Traditions Cafe, 300 5th Ave SW, Olympia, WA 98501

When: Friday, November 5th, 7:00-8:30pm

*Featuring Augusto Obregon, Federation for the Integral Development between Farmers, Nicaragua & Carmen Duran, Tijuana Center for Information for Workers, Mexico with Kristen Beifus of the Washington Fair Trade Coalition, Colette Cosner of Witness for Peace, and Bjorn Claeson of SweatFree Communities

VOICES FROM THE GRASSROOTS

Worker organizing, corporate campaigning,
and sweatfree policy

Where: First Christian Church, 701 Franklin St. SE, Olympia, WA

When: Saturday, November 6th, 4:00-6:00pm

*Featuring Reynaldo Corporan Donastorg, FEDOTRAZONAS union, Dominican Republic & Victor Velez, Workers United union, Puerto Rico

For the complete program, registration & more info: sweatfree.org/summit

A Network for Local Action Against Sweatshops

a campaign of International Labor Rights Forum 